

REPORT ON THE XII PAN-AMERICAN CONGRESS OF NEUROLOGY
SANTO DOMINGO, DOMINICAN REPUBLIC
OCTOBER 7-11, 2007

The Pan-American Congress is a regional activity of the World Federation of Neurology held every four years since 1963. The WFN Sleep Research Group sponsored scientific and educational sessions, chaired by Antonio Culebras MD.

The XII Congress was organized by the Dominican Society of Neurology with the collaboration of Kenes International www.kenes.com/neuro-congresos/

CONGRESS PRESIDENT

Dr. Ana Robles
Dominican Republic

LANGUAGES

English and Spanish

REGISTRATION (See chart)

Registrants	898
Countries	36

SPECIAL ACTIVITIES

XI Course in Spanish endorsed by the AAN

Director: Antonio Culebras

Registrants	243
Countries	25

PANAMERICAN COUNCIL OF DELEGATES

The Council elected La Paz, Bolivia, as venue for the XIII Pan-American Congress of Neurology to be held October 12, 2011. Other candidate was Cancún, Mexico.

Submitted by:

Antonio Culebras, MD,
Chair, WFN Sleep Research Group

October 12, 2007

aculebras@aol.com