

Sleep Disorders in Prodromal and Clinical Alzheimer's Disease: Approach and Management

Djavad Mowafaghian
CENTRE FOR BRAIN HEALTH

Haakon B. Nygaard, MD, PhD

Associate Professor, Division of Neurology
Fipke Professor of Alzheimer Research
Director, UBCH Clinic for Alzheimer Disease
University of British Columbia

Disclosures

---

- Independent consultant for Biogen, Hoffman-La Roche, and Eisai
- Off label and developing medications involving the above companies may be discussed

Learning Objectives

---

- To understand the prevalence of sleep disorders across the Alzheimer's spectrum
- To learn how various sleep disorders directly impact Alzheimer's pathophysiology
- To learn about prospective clinical trials addressing sleep disorders across the Alzheimer's spectrum
- To learn how certain sleep disorders can be addressed in clinical practice, across the different stages of Alzheimer's