2.7 Except for the chair of the meeting, who has no vote other than a casting vote (unless the chair is an authorised delegate in which case he or she has a second or casting vote), every Member Society through an authorised delegate has one vote on each issue and where an authorised delegate is acting on behalf of two or more Member Societies from the same country such Member Societies through that authorised delegate shall have one vote between them on each issue.

2.8 The chair may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time, and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business which might have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. Save as aforesaid the Member Societies shall not be entitled to any notice of an adjournment, or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
