

WORLD BRAIN DAY

July 22, 2020

move together to end parkinson's disease

World Brain Day 2020 is dedicated to raising awareness for Parkinson's Disease, a neurodegenerative brain disease that affects more than 7 million people of all ages worldwide. Parkinson's can impact movement and almost all aspects of brain function, and COVID-19 is a dramatic reminder that healthcare is a global issue.

Learn more at wfneurology.org/world-brain-day-2020

International Parkinson and Movement Disorder Society